Exchange & Broker's Office,

Georgetown, District of Columbia.

ROMULUS RIGGS,

AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on. August 18

Valuable Family Medicines.

JUST received direct from the proprietors, the following valuable Medicines, all of which have been in use for a number of years past, in almost every part of the United States; have been highly patronised by people of the first respectability; and approved by those who have had occasion to make use of them, for the cure of those disorders, for which they are severally calculated.

Dr. Lee's Genuine (Windham) Bilious Pills,

Universally known and used throughout the United States as a Family Medicine. The fame of these pills has become so great that many have attempted to counterfeit them—to guard against this, the proprietors have procured a Stereotype Label, and each box of Genuine Lee's Pills will hereafter be enclosed in one of these labels, with these words on the sides: "Lee's Genuine Windham Billious Pills," and on the end of the Label the words, "Samuel Lee, patentee, &c. I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor," &c. and should any be offered for sale without said Label on them, the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

Dr. Thompson's Celebrated Eye-Water:

For the cure of inflamed and sore eyes of almost every description. This valuable preparation comes highly recommended from the most respectable sources. Price 50 and 25 cents a bottle.

Dr. Rawson's Genuine Itch Ointment:

A certain and safe cure for that disagreeable complaint, as well as other irruptions of the skin. Price 37½ cents a box.

Dr. Rawson's Anti-Bilious and Stomachic Bitters,

For weakly and infirm constitutions. Price 37½ cents a box.

Hinckley's Infallible Remedy for the Piles,

A most valuable medicine. Price 50 cents a box.

Specific Drops for the Tooth Ache,

Which in almost every case, gives instant relief, in that distressing complaint. Price 37½ cents a bottle.

Cooley's Vegetable Elixir, for Coughs, Asthmas, Consumptions, &c.

A very valuable medicine in those complaints. Price 50 cents a bottle.

For the Gazette.

WHEN MARY'S GONE.

What power can soothe the woes I'll feel;
What pen my inward pangs reveal,
What gentle balm my sorrows heal,
When Mary's gone?

Affection's voice, or tender sigh;
The tear that spring's from friendship's eye
E'en beauty charms will fade and die,
When Mary's gone.

No gentle voice, uh! wilt me cheer;
No strains seraphic greet my ear,
Nor chase away the stings of care,
When Mary's gone.

Oft when among the light and gay,
Or from my native hills away,
My thoughts on fancy's wings will stray,
Where Mary's gone.

Then fare the well—oh! think on me,
Who fondly thinks so much of thee,
Whose very thoughts and wishes flee,
Where Mary's gone.

EUGENIUS.

We doubt very much, whether any language, either ancient or modern, is so well adapted to the conveyance of simple and striking descriptions of natural scenery, or strong and pathetic delineations of character, as the Scottish lowland dialect. Multitudes of instances in support of the justice of this remark, might be taken from the modern series of novels or romances, which are supposed to have been written by the well known poet Walter Scott. Many of the characters in these celebrated productions, are drawn with great force and effect—and would have done credit to the great master of dramatic painting,—Shakspeare. Such are Meg Merriless, in Guy Mannering, Edie Ochiltree, in the Antiquary, Andrew Fairsonvie in Rob Roy, &c. The following extracts from a recent work from that country, entitled "Attic Stories," though short, is of the same general character. [London paper.

"Saunders Warnock, the oldest resident-er in Glenmuir was long teased by the superior to sell his house and a small strip of land that stretched from behind it to the banks of the Bogill burn. Saunders is rather what the neighbors call a willyart body, and being tired of importunity, contrived always to be out of the way when the factor called to talk of terms. At length an interview was effected at the manse. Saunders and his progenitors, have, for many generations, performed the duties of kirk-officer, and, on the pretext of talking with him anent the affairs of his office, Mr. Cargill, the minister, sent for him once when the factor and I were present. The business was no sooner mentioned, than Saunders arose from his seat, and in a modest but determined tone, uttered, as I can recollect, the following words. Na! na! the bit laun that was my father's, an my grandfather's, an aw thair forbears, wiina be saul by me. I canna pairt wi the bonny burn lip. Thair no a tree on't aw, but has bein plantit by a Warnock, an ilka ane of thaim mynds me o sum storie o the bygane time. Quhyles quhan I hae sitten on the bank i' the e'enin, an hae seen the sun shinan alang the grand sward, an skinklan on ilka winnock i' the toun, quhan the bow flourishes scentit the air, an no a sue was to be heard but the din o the waens on the know I hae thocht I o the dule and weariness o eild. Indeed I downa feicht for my laun now, but I winna pairt wi't as long as a word o my mouth may keep it Puchankarein awa down to the grave, and i'll e'en die on the blythe bit quhar I was born. The following circular from the house of Messrs. Campbell, Bowden & Co. of London, addressed to Joseph Fowler, esq their agent in the United States, and their other correspondents, will explain the circumstances of the momentary embarrassment of their affairs, and the gratifying developement under which they were enabled to resume their payments.

London, 19th Jan. 1819.

Sir—We make no doubt that advices will have reached you of the unpleasant situation in which the great and very extraordinary delay in the returns we have been expecting from all quarters had unfortunately placed us on the 8th inst. and we therefore take the earliest opportunity of informing you that the bank of England having come forward to our assistance with a loan of £150,000, and our private friends, who have on this trying occasion, and notwithstanding the great and general pressure of the times, acted in the most liberal and handsome manner towards us, making us a further voluntary advance of £50,000, we were enabled to resume our payments on the 12th inst. and we have now the full means of discharging our engagements.

It is incumbent to state, that after a strict investigation of our affairs, by six of the most respectable merchants of this city, it is fully evident our assets, made up much under what they will necessarily yield, and reposing upon the best securities, exceed our debts by £200,000; and on these grounds it is that we feel fully warranted in soliciting a continuance of that confidence and good will with which our friends have hitherto honored us.

Although not the smallest restrictions are imposed upon our operations, yet we consider ourselves in honor bound not to engage in any new concerns, until we shall have reduced our affairs within the scope and management of our own capital, and we are, on this account, under the necessity of declining for the present any new engagements. We trust however, that the arrangements we are making for the rapid liquidation of our pending concerns, will in a short time be carried into full effect, and enable us to enter again into active correspondence with you.

We have great pleasure in adding that our temporary suspension has not in the least affected our friends, Messrs. Collings & Mangy, of Rotterdam, whose great prudence and very extensive means continue to give them every claim to the utmost confidence of their numerous friends. Referring to their own communications on the subject, we have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servants,
CAMPBELL, BOWDEN & Co.

Savannah, March 25.

Commercial letters received by the Thorn fully confirm the unfavorable reports of the cotton market, received by the Virginia at Norfolk. The following circular has been politely handed us for publication.

[Republican.

Liverpool, 30th January, 1819.

"Our market has this week been in an exceedingly unsettled state: a very general desire to sell, arising almost wholly from the want of pecuniary resources, which the absence for some time past of our regular demand and the unfavorable state of credit have occasioned, has by no means been met by the disposition to buy, which the trade, and especially the dealers, have usually shewn under such circumstances; and great sacrifices have, in consequence been made.

"Our latest sales show a decline of 0¼ a 0½d in Surats; 0½d a 1d in Uplands; full 1d in Brazils; and 1d a 2d in Sea-Islands—with a corresponding reduction in every other kind except Bengals; even this sacrifice has not been the means of increasing the amount of our sales, only 4600 bags of all kinds having been sold, of which about 1500 are East-Indias.

"The public sale of yesterday was thinly attended, and the low qualities found only a few buyers at a reduction of a 0¼d a ½d per lb.

"The following is the business of the week: 247 Sea-Islands, 2s 8½d clean fair, to 3s 2d a 3s 4d fine—252 Orleans, at 17d middling fair, to 18 and 19½d very good—1238 Boweds, good fair and good new, from 17d down to 16d; a few good old, 17½d; and 7 bags prime, 18d—537 good pernams, 22d a 21d—145 middling Bahias, 19d 392 Maranhams, 20d a 19d fair to good—30 Paras 18½ a 19d—50 good fair Demeraras, 19½ and 19¾—32 middling fair West-Indias, 16 and 16½d—457 Surats, 8½d dirty, middling common to 12¼ good; a few fine Toomels 14d—and about 1000 Bengals, chiefly at 7½ and 7¾d middling and fair common, per public sale: 236 Surats, 8½d dirty common, 9¾d good fair common; one lot good clean 11d. These are all to the trade.

"Current Prices.—Cottons, Sea-Island, remarkably fine and clean, 3s a 3s 4d to 3s 8d; good clean and fine 2s 10d a 3s; clean fair, not fine 2s 8d a 2s 9½d; middling 2s 6d a 2s 8d; inferior 2s 5d a 2s 6d; stained 1s 5d a 2s; New-Orleans 1s 4d a 1s 6½d to 1s 8d; Tennessee 1s 2½d a 1s 3d; upland, new 1s 3d a 1s 4½d; do old 1s 3d a 1s 5d."

FROM HAVANA.

By the sloop Thames, Capt, Allyn, arrived yesterday, in 8 days from Havana, we have commercial advices as late as the 16th inst. They quote coffee at $23½ a 25 per cwt.; Muscovado Sugar, 8¼ a 8½; Molasses, 8 a 8½ bitts, and declining. American Produce not quoted.

Extract of a letter, dated Buenos Ayres, December, 12.

"We have no further news except the change of a supreme executive director ad-interim in the person of Don Jose Rondeau, Mr. Pueyredon having had the misfortune to loose his right hand by the explosion of a powder-horn in it."

FROM CURRACOA.

We learn from Captain Cole, of the Belle-Savage from Curracoa, that late accounts had been received from the Spanish Maine, stating that the Patriots were fitting out an expedition at Margaretta, to go against the Royalists; but in what quarter they meant to make the attack was not ascertained.

MISSION TO SPAIN.

Yesterday the United States ship Hornet, 18 guns, Capt. Read, sailed from this harbour for Spain.—She has on board, as passengers, the hon. Mr. Forsyth, Minister Plenipotentiary to the court of Madrid, Mr. Fenwick, Secretary of Legation, and Mr. Read, private secretary of the Minister. On going on board the minister was saluted by the Hornet, and on passing Fort Independence the ship was saluted, and the salute returned. We learn, that the Hornet will wait at Cadiz, until capt, Read repairs with the treaty lately signed at Washington to Madrid, and that the ship will return for Boston as soon as the treaty receives the ratification of Ferdinand 7th. We are assured that no doubts are entertained of his immediate ratification. It proving unfavourable to proceeds to sea, the Hornet put back in the afternoon, and anchored in Nantasket Roads.

MAIL ROBBERY—AGAIN!

The following is a copy of a letter from the Post Master of Newbern to the Post Master in Wilmington, (N.C.)

Newbern, March 16.

"Dear Sir—Having obtained satisfactory proof of the robberry of the mail, I caused the rider to be arrested for examination. He denied all knowledge of the robbery, until finding that he would be committed to prison, he stated that the mail had been robbed four times in three weeks, by two Negro Men. It is probable that others have committed the robbery; but that it was done without the concurrence of the boy, is not likely. He is now in gaol. Since his confinement he has made other vague acknowledgments."

SHIP BEAVER.

Some time ago, information was received here of the detention and condemnation of this ship by the Spanish authority at Talcuhuana. A letter was received yesterday by Messrs. J. J. Astor & Son, owners, dated at Lima the 4th of December, and announcing that the Beaver had been sent to that place, and that, through the exertions of capt. Biddle of the U. S. ship Ontario, she had been restored to the owners, by an order of the Viceroy of the Province.

New-York, Com. Adv.

From the N. Y. Evening Post, March 29.

Captain Miller, of the brig Ann, which arrived at Providence, (R.I.) last Thursday, from Wilmington, (N. C.) informs that on the 8th March, at 8 o'clock, P. M. in lat. 38, long. 73, he saw a light directly ahead; at 12, midnight, approached so near as to discover it to be a vessel wrapped in flames; the wind heading at that moment prevented us from ascertaing her character; but, by her appearent length, she was a vessel of some magnitude. In a few moments after passing her the light disappeared, which authorized the conclusion that she had burned to the water's edge, and that the waves had extinguished the fire, as it was blowing very heavy from the north-east.

Richmond. April, 1.

A case of some litte nicety, touching the application of a point of law to testimony, was brought before the hustings court of this city, on Monday last. Some weeks since, certain persons of colour had been playing faro; and one of them, who had lost by the game, turned informer, and called upon the police, who took the person charged with exhibiting the table into custody. Three were brought before the Hustings Court on Monday; and when the first case of a respectable coloured man was called up, it appeared from the evidence, that after two had exhibited the table, playing with the company, he, finding he was losing, said he would try his luck, and accordingly seated himself at the table, laid his money before him, took hold of the cards, and invited his companions to bet. It appeared, however, that none of them did actually bet, that he did not turn a card, and that of course he did not play in the character of an exhibitor. The Act of Assembly declares that the keeper or exhibitor of a faro table is guilty of a high misdemeanor. The question was, whether this man was an exhibitor, or not, in the eye of the law. His counsel contended that he was not; that he must not only be ready to play, but must actually play, to constitute the offence. The Court decided in the man's favour—and he was accordingly discharged.

The next day, the other two men were sent on for further trial. [Compiler.

Baltimore, April 1.

The editor is indebted to a friend for the following account of the interesting trial in the county court now in session in this city.

"Yesterday morning, before the judges of Baltimore county court, commenced the trial of Obed Griffith, a youth of about sixteen years of age, who was indicted for the murder of William Warrick, in Baltimore county, in November last. The court and jury were laboriously engaged in the examination of the evidence until 3 o'clock P. M. when the case was opened on the part of the state by the district attorney, H. M. Murray, esq. He was followed by Charles Walsh, Reverdy Johnson, John S. Tyson, and E. L. Finley, esqs. counsel for the prisoner; and the argument was closed by the district attorney at half past 12 o'clock this morning. The arguments of counsel occupied 9½ hours. The jury retired to their room, at twenty minutes before 1 o'clock, and brought into court this morning, a sealed verdict of "guilty of murder in the 2d degree." The court sentenced the prisoner to confinement in the penitentiary for six years, six months of which to be solitary confinement. [Federal Gazette.

From the National Intelligencer:

The following curious letter is from one of the most respectable citizens of Georgetown.

To the Editors.—Seeing in your paper of yesterday, an account of a drowned person being found by a loaf of bread, with quicksilver inserted in it, I now give you the following account:—A young man about 16 years old, by name Nichols, the son of Simon Nichols, (then sheriff of Montgomery county, Maryland) who lived then with Mr. Robert Peter, not knowing how to swim, slipped, when bathing, into a deep place in the Potomac, directly before the place where now the Commercial Warehouse stands, and was drowned. After several unsuccesful attempts to recover the body, his father was sent for, 20 miles distance. The next day, in presence of his father, attempts were constantly making to recover the body, but in vain. Some person present mentioned the loaf of bread and quicksilver. It was procured, and put into the river: after moving some small distance from where it was put in, the body of the drowned person bounced up near the loaf.—I say bounced, because it rose with force, so that ten or twelve inches of the body came above the water, and again sunk to the level. I cannot say whether the loaf was attracted to the place by the body, or carried there by the current. I have been thus particular, because, there are at least a dozen persons now living who know the fact, and were eye witnesses of it. The father fainted away and dropped, as if shot at the instant.—I think it happened at the close of the revolutionary war. You may take what notice you please of this (except as to mentioning names) in your paper, if you think proper; and to your friends you may say whom you had it from. I was talking with an eye witness about it, not three weeks ago.

Extract of a letter from Geneva, to a gentleman in Washington, dated 21st December, 1818

"We have here a beautiful prolonged autumn; a clear sky; neither rain, snow nor ice. Our surrounding mountains, which are generally crowned with snow before the month of November, have not a single flake on any of their summits. This is truly a phenomenon of which the oldest inhabitant does not remember to have seen the like.

"The Hospodar of Wallachia resides in our city, with his family and suite of forty persons. This produces a circulation of money among us, and gratifies the curiosity of those who were unacquainted with the Grecian costume. These Greeks have found the means of withdrawing their treasures and their heads beyond the reach of the Grand Seignor, who wished to seize the one, and take off the other.

"There are also a number of distinguished foreigners among us—English, Germans, Russians, &c. We gave a ball to the brother of the Emperor of Russia, who passed through the day before yesterday."

St. Louis, (MO.) Feb. 24.

CLIMATE.

It is stated that a corporal of the 4th infantry was frozen to death on the 7th November, between the town of Pensacola and the Barrancas fort. The degree of cold is not stated, but probably was not more than 8 or 10 degrees of Fahrenheit.

In the winter of 1816—17, the crew of a schooner, captain and all, were frozen to death on lake Ponchartrain, in the neighborhood of New-Orleans, in a cold of 9 degrees.

In the winter of 1817, at St. Lewis, a man attempting to cross the river just at dark, in a skiff, was entangled in floating ice, and lodged on a sand bar, where he remained all night in his ordinary clothing, and was taken off the next day without any permanent injury The cold was 30 deg. by Fahrenheit, This was the first week in January.

The same thing happened precisely in the first week of Feb. following, to four individuals, one of whom, who had got drunk in St. Louis, perished; the others suffered no lasting injury. The cold that night was 30 deg.

These facts astonish people who do not know that cold is more or less destructive to animal life as it is combined with more or less of moisture; and that a freezing which kills in the humid atmosphere of the south, is not even felt in the dry air of the Upper Mississippi. The same of heat. Combined with moisture, it fills the air with pestilence and death: of itself, it produces no diseases.

The salubrious, quality of the water, of the Missouri river is proverbial among the people who inhabit this country, and is known to men of reading in Europe and America. A remarkable instance of the truth of this character is now exhibited in the camp of the rifle regiment, (on its way to the Yellow Stone)—authentic intelligence from which states that there is not a single man on the sick report. A trader has arrived at captain Martin's camp, who states that the Arikaras had killed two traders from St. Louis, and chased himself several days. He lays the outrage to the door of a British trader.

New-York, April 1.

FROM ST. SALVADOR.

Captain Kimball of the schr. Charles Sidney, who arrived at Holme's Hole on Saturday last, in 59 days from St. Salvador, communicates the following information: Markets completely glutted with American produce. Prices Feb. 5th, flour 10 millreas—fish 4—sperm candles 369 reas per pound—tallow do 180 do—cordage 8 a 9 millreas per quintal, or 128 lbs; American gin, 800 reas per gallon; Holland do 840 do; brown soap, 80 do per lb; coffee, 5200 reas per arobe; sugar, first quality, 2300 do; molasses, 23 millreas per pipe, (scarce and on the rise); dry salted hides, 86 reas per lb; Ipecacuhana, 129 do do.—Mr. Hill, the American consul, was at Rio Janeiro; and a Portuguese gentleman was acting as his deputy at St. Salvador. The new tonnage duty, which was to have been imposed the 1st of Nov. had not been exacted when the C. S. left, but was expected shortly to take place. The Portuguese most religiously believe that the late depredations committed on their commerce, by privateers fitted out from Baltimore, were sanctioned by our government, and in consequence of this impression the Americans are regarded with an eye of suspicion and distrust, and are frequently complimented with the honorable apellation of thieves and pirates!"

Notice.

☞ The inhabitants of Alexandria will take notice, that the subscribers have been appointed assessors for the present year, agreeably to the laws of the corporation.

"The said assessors shall, immediately after their appointment, proceed to value the houses and lots within the limits of the corporation, and to demand from the masters and mistresses of every family, lists of all male tytheables belonging to, or residing in their respective families, and also from every owner of taxable property, a list of such property. And if any master or mistress of a family, or any owner of taxable property, shall neglect or refuse to give in a list of all male tytheables belonging to, or residing in his or her family, or of his or her taxable property, within five days after demand made thereof by any assessor, the person so offending shall forfeit and pay one hundred dollars. And if any person whatsoever, shall wilfully omit or misrepresent in the list given in, any tytheable or any taxable property, or shall in any other manner conceal the same from the knowledge of the assessors, the person so offending shall forfeit and pay double the amount of the tax imposed on each tytheable or taxable property. Every merchant, shopkeeper, mechanic, or other person, having in his or her service or employment any clerk, journeyman, apprentice, or assistant, shall render an account of the same in his or her list of tytheables, and shall be accountable for the capitation tax hereby imposed, in like manner and under the same penalties, as if such clerk, journeyman, apprentice, or assistant, were a member of his or her family."

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufactoring mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The inprovements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirous of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutricious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or Vaccine Institution.

THE small pox having appeared in Alexandria, such persons as have been vaccinated by the subscriber are invited to attend at his office, on St. Asaph-street, between Prince and Duke streets, to have their arms examined. Indigent persons are also invited to the same place for the purpose of being vaccinated. The subscriber will attend at his office every day in the week except Sunday, from 7 o'clock until 10 in the morning, for the purpose of receiving them.

He proposes also to be less particular than heretofore in the investigation of their claims to the benefit of the institution, as may respect their indigence and length of residence in town. The subscriber earnestly requests all such citizens as may be acquainted with persons liable to contagion, to send them without delay as above directed, where they will be served effectually and gratuitously.
